

Black Leadership Forum
Center for Responsible Lending
Consumer Federation of America
Inter-religious Working Group on Domestic Human Needs
Leadership Conference on Civil Rights
NAACP
National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials

Are pleased to sponsor a Congressional Staff Briefing on

SPRINGING THE DEBT TRAP - IN CALIFORNIA AND ACROSS THE NATION

A briefing on the impacts of high-cost credit on vulnerable households including discussions on:

The effects of payday lending on California's communities of color from CRL's new 'Predatory Profiling' study;

*The need for a 36% interest rate cap to protect families from high-cost debt;
And success stories from community leaders helping families avoid debt traps and build wealth.*

Thursday, June 4, 2009 - 8:30 am until 10:00 am
2203 Rayburn House Office Building

Honorary Co-hosts:
Chairwoman Maxine Waters and Congresswoman Jackie Speier

Presenters:

Michael D. Calhoun

President, Center for Responsible Lending

Alan Fisher

Executive Director, California Reinvestment
Coalition, San Francisco, California

Bishop Minerva Carcaño

Desert Southwest Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church- Arizona

Dennis Campa

Director, Department of Community
Initiatives at City of San Antonio, Texas

Rita Hayes

CEO, Mount Sinai Credit Union (now Faith
Community United), Cleveland, Ohio

Hilary Shelton

Vice President and Director, Washington
Bureau, NAACP

Please RSVP to Charlitta Bragg at 202-349-1852 or Charlitta.Bragg@self-help.org by Wednesday, June 3rd.

Coffee will be served.